

Truly Iconic

Sub-Zero and Wolf, two brands have come together to create the ultimate cooking experience. The dual-refrigerator with the iconic Sub-Zero look is one of the most celebrated designs ever for a home product. On the other hand, Wolf offers highly specialised kitchen equipment with extremely user-friendly technology that gives accurate control to the user.

Unique Twist

Ivanka Lumiere introduces the tribal lighting collection. The magnificent beauty of tribal art, showcased in each design exuberates the untold stories of glorious times. Inspired from the exaggerated expressions of tribal masks and totems, the lights are created with bold characters.

Smooth Walk

Jaipur Rugs and Italian designer Matteo Cibic take you on an eclectic experiential trip through handmade rugs collection. Named Jaipur Wunderkammer, the rugs are inspired by Cibic's visit to Jaipur, Rajasthan. It is an installation that takes on a museum appearance, a room in the room with a collection of colours and shapes. Cibic and Jaipur Rugs are conveying the mission of showcasing a new contemporary India and creating a new sustainable production model for handmade carpets.

Springing a Surprise

Sarita Handa's new spring summer collection are beauties inspired by pillars in home art and design. Named naturalist, primrose, mojave, stargazer and amazonia, they are lesser appreciated nuances of botanical forms and landscapes in nature.

